THE CRUM FAMILY

INTRODUCTION

1251534

One of my earliest recollections is of being taken as a child to visit my great-grandmother, Amelia Crum Lybarger. I remember a very old lady sitting by a curtained window. She was passing her declining years in the home of her son, my grandfather's brother, Edwin Lewis Lybarger, at Spring Mountain, Ohio.

Amelia Crum was a Virginian. She was born near Winchester on July 13, 1813 and died February 6, 1902. Her parents were Lewis Crum and Sarah Eagle.

From my youth I had heard about the Crum Family. My father, Jesse J. Lybarger, told me of visiting his grandmother's brothers and sisters in 1887; and he had made the acquaintance of members of the Crum family in Winchester in later years. I inherited the notes which he had made concerning the Crums, and I also had visited at Winchester, in 1939, and had been in correspondence with Crum descendants from whom I had accumulated much information. But still I had no definite picture of the family relationships. Who was Lewis Crum's father? My father had always gone on the assumption that it was John Crum. When did Lewis Crum come from Virginia to Ohio, and where did his family live? And what became of the Crums who were my great-grandmother's kin? These were some of the questions which once in a while would come to mind when thinking back on our family history.

An active interest in genealogy is like a fever - it may come and go from time to time, flare up intensely for a while and then die down and be long forgotten. So it has been with my study of the Crum family. One day I got to looking over my file and found a copy of Amelia Crum Lybarger's wedding certificate showing that she and James Thompson Lybarger had been married in Wayne county December 24, 1833 and that Jacob Lybarger and E. B. Eagle had been witnesses. Then I studied a copy of a letter sent to me by Nancy Lybarger Rhoades that was written to Amelia by her brother George W. Crum in 1897. In it he said in part: "I have been thinking of you so much of late and how good you were to us little ones when we were all at home together on old Mohegan Creek." Suddenly I realized that here were some clues that might help me locate where Lewis Crum had lived when he migrated from Virginia to Ohio. The Mohegan Creek? Could that be the Mohican? However the Mohican is not in Wayne but in Ashland, the county which adjoins Wayne to the west. Then I remembered that originally, from 1812 until 1846, part of Ashland had been embraced in Wayne County, and I recalled that Jacob Lybarger, my great-grandfather's uncle, had settled in Mohican township, Ashland County prior to 1830. So my search was on!

Today there are many sources of information concerning the early settlers which were not at hand when my genealogical interest began years ago. The old stand-by was, and still is, the county histories of the 1880's or earlier. They contain many valuable lists of names and biographies of pioneers. The cumulative index of Ohio county histories in the Ohio Historical Society library at Columbus is most helpful. Likewise family histories, archives of certain states and miscellaneous publications have been of aid. Now there are volumes of early marriage records, wills, court cases, cemetary inscriptions and tax lists available. Perhaps the greatest boon to the patient searcher are the microfilm copies of the decennial census records. The first federal census was taken in 1790. It has been published in book form. Succeeding census returns may now be viewed page by page on film just as they were written by the original census takers. They show the names of the heads of families and classify the members of each family by age. From 1850 on the returns also list the name and age of each person in the family. Finally, one must always take into account family traditions which have been handed down from the past. Here, then, were the chief sources for the information concerning early members of the Crum family which I have been able to get together thus far.

I cannot write a complete genealogy of the family. The task would take more time and energy than I possess. My aim is to trace as far as possible at this time the descendants of Anthony Crum Sr. of Frederick county, Virginia, in the hope that my notes may prove helpful to others who are interested in this branch of the Crum family.

Unfortunately the following record is bound to include some mistakes. When dealing with names and dates of the past one cannot avoid a certain number of errors. Also many names have been omitted simply because they were not known. I have made a serious effort to contact as many living members of the Crum family as possible, but only with limited success.

I invite the criticism and help of all into whose hands this book may fall. If by chance your family is not included please send me word concerning it, to the end that any future effort may be a complete record of the descendants of Anthony Crum Sr., pioneer settler of Frederick county, Virginia.

CHAPTER I - THE EARLY CRUMS

Following the American Revolution families by the name of Crum were widely scattered from Rhode Island to South Carolina. It is not likely that many of them were closely related. The family with which we are concerned settled in or near Winchester, Frederick county, Virginia, prior to the Revolution.

Apparently the first to come was Henry Crum who acquired 387 acres of land from the original Proprietors in Frederick county. His wife was Ann and he had a son John. Henry's will was drawn December 11, 1766 and proved in court June 3, 1767 (A). In it he left his plantation and stock to his wife with the remainder to his son John on his mother's death. July 26, 1771 John Crum and his wife Christiana conveyed part of the land to one George Prince.(B). His mother, therefore, must have died before that date. It seems probable that Henry Crum was born between 1690-1710.

During the Revolution John Crum enlisted June 1, 1777 in Peter Bryn Bruin's Company, 11th Virginia Regiment, of which Col. Daniel Morgan was colonel. The regiment was mustered in at Winchester and known as "Morgan's Virginia Riflemen." In 1779 Crum was transferred to William Johnson's Company, 7th Virginia Regiment.(C).

It is likely that some time after the Revolution John Crum moved from Virginia to Frederick county, Maryland. A John Crum is listed there on the census return of 1790 as having 6 sons over 16 years old, 1 son under 16 and 1 daughter. His son John Crum Jr., had 1 son over 16, 2 sons under 16 and 1 daughter. In the same county in 1790 were two heads of families named William Crum. (D). I would judge that John Crum Sr., was born between 1730-40 and John Jr., between 1750-55. Among the names of members of the Crum family buried in Frederick county, Maryland are Abraham Crum, B- 1708, D- May 31, 1787; Abraham, B- October 24, 1771, D- January 24, 1796; and William Crum Sr., B- October 10, 1741, D- June 28, 1810. (E).

It is not known what relationship Henry and John Crum had to Anthony Crum Sr., who is mentioned hereafter. In a letter written in 1928 L. R. Allen, a Crum descendant who had done much research at Winchester and elsewhere, speculated that Henry may have been the father of Anthony Sr., who perhaps was a younger brother of John Sr., the eldest son. This could account for the provision in Henry's will bequeathing his land to John, for at that time it was the general custom to leave land to the eldest son. The fact that one of Anthony's sons was named Henry may mean that he was named for his grandfather, as was so often the case.

In March, 1779 one Philip Crum got a large tract of land in Frederick county, Virginia, by deed of gift from his grandfather, Ralph Withers. In 1796 Philip Crum and his wife Sarah sold the same (F). Mr. Allen, mentioned above, was of the opinion that Philip may have been a son of John Crum. Presently nothing further is known of Henry, John or Philip Crum or their descendants.

After writing of the first three generations of the family, I was fortunate in hearing from Glenn P. Crum of Palmyra, Illinois who sent me a copy of "The Crum Family in America," written in 1949 by his brothers Dr. Edwin W. Crum and Dr. Ferris B. Crum. This is an excellent genealogy primarily of the descendants of Matthias Crum of Montgomery county, Virginia in western Virginia, one hundred ninety miles south of Winchester. It also records 31 heads of families and a total of 140 known persons descended from Anthony Crum of whom I am writing. The Crum family is certainly indebted to the authors for their painstaking and scholarly work. Matthias Sr.'s. sons John and Matthias Jr., moved to Jefferson county, Kentucky and in the early 1800's into Clark county, Indiana. In 1831 Matthias Jr., settled in Morgan county, Illinois. He had 14 children and his brother John 16. The book in a very able manner traces the widely scattered descendants of the two brothers.

It is likely that Anthony Crum Sr., and Matthias Crum Sr., were brothers. From page 12 I quote:

"While the relationship of Anthony Crum Sr., and Matthias Crum Sr., has not been definitely established, there is good reason to assume that they were brothers. They hailed from the same part of Germany, if not from the same spot, they migrated to America about the same time, they settled not too far apart in Virginia, and both apparently adopted the anglicized form of the name (Crum instead of Krum) on landing in America. There is a certain tradition also which supports the assumed relationship."

CHAPTER II - CONCERNING ANTHONY CRUM SR.

We come now to the progenitor of the Crums of Winchester from whom so many are descended. There are two family traditions as to the origin of this branch of the Crum family. Kelby Crum states that his grandfather told him that the Krum family in Germany split, and some migrated to England, became British subjects and changed the spelling of the name to Crum; then several decades later came to America. Others say the family came directly either from the lower Rhine area or from Saxony in 1740. All are agreed that the Crums settled first in or near Media, Delaware county, Pennsylvania. Who the original immigrant was is not known. In Delaware county, Pa., are a Crum Creek and a town named Crum Lynne. Whether there is any connection between these names and the family of Anthony Crum Sr. I do not know, although I doubt it. Neither is it certain just when Anthony migrated to Virginia. He is said to have settled in or near Brucetown, about 10 miles northeast of the county seat of Frederick. L. R. Allen wrote in 1928: "The first record of Anthony there is the purchase in 1774 of 600 acres of land for which he paid over 1500 English pounds, which means that he must have been very well-to-do financially, as that sum at the time represented enough to purchase the labor of 15 men for eight or nine years."

It is not possible at this writing to say when Anthony Sr. was born. The name of his first wife is not known, but she was the mother of all of his children. September 17, 1795 Anthony Sr. married Freny Cyphret. (G). She may have been the daughter of Francis Cyphert who in 1782 was a resident of Shenandoah, the neighboring country to the south of Frederick county, Virginia. On the tax record the name was spelled "Cyvert." (H) At the time of their marriage Anthony and Freny entered into a marriage settlement, and as a result he bequeathed $100 to his wife in his will, having already provided for her before his death.

On the returns of the first census in 1790 (which actually embodies Virginia tax lists for 1782), the only heads of families in Virginia bearing the name Crum were Anthony Sr. and his sons Anthony Jr., Christian and Henry (H), and Matthias Crum whose name is on a supplemental list. (HH)

The will of Anthony Sr. was drawn September 1, 1804 and it was proved in court December 3, 1804. He died between these dates. In his will are mentioned all of his children whose names follow (I). Since no exact date of birth is available at this time the order of births below is an approximation, based on clues in census and marriage records.

Children:
* I - Anthony Jr., 1742 (?)
* II - Christian, Sr., 1748 (?) :
* III - Henry (John Henry) 1748(?) : (twins)
* IV - Mary (Shruck) (Schreck)
* V - Catherine (Weaver)
* VI - Anna (Deal)
* VII - Elizabeth (Hackathorne) (Heckendorn)

* An asterisk before a name indicates that the person is carried forward into the next generation with known descendants.

CHAPTER III - THE CHILDREN OF ANTHONY CRUM SR.

For much of the information concerning the families of Anthony Crum's children, I am indebted to Mrs. Lester L. Pontius of Circleville, Ohio, who furnished a very interesting chart of the Crum family. It should be emphasized that apparently the list of the children of Anthony Sr. is complete, but that in most instances one cannot be certain that the children of the next generation are all listed or that the order of their birth is correct.

I - ANTHONY JR., B- about 1742, D- about June 1814.
M- Elizabeth, B- 1737 D- 1821

Anthony Jr., spent all of his life in Frederick county, Va. In 1782 his family consisted of 8 persons, indicating that he had six children born before that year. In a letter written in 1928 L. R. Allen said: "The will of Anthony Jr., June 28, 1814, had a devout preface; left his wife Elizabeth during her life the house and 10 acres of land; to his son Anthony III all the remainder of the land; directed that Anthony give to his mother one-fourth of the income therefrom during her life; to each daughter he left $100; and he appointed his grandson John Crum his executor." It is not likely that Anthony Jr. had more children living than those mentioned in his will.

Children:
*1 - Anthony III
2 - Jane C. (Koontz)
3 - Ann C. (Mauck)
4 - Katy (Sowers)
5 - Rebecca (Boocher)

II - CHRISTIAN, SR., B- about 1748, D- September, 1820 in Frederick county, Va. M. Christiana Schmidt, who was living in 1831 with her daughter Catherine (Mrs. John Gibson) at Barnesville, Belmont county, Ohio.

Writing in 1861 John Lawrence said: "Christian and Henry Crum, twin brothers, and twin souls in zeal and experience, were holy, good men." (J). Christian Sr. became one of the early ministers of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, while Henry was active in the Methodist Episcopal Church. In a short article written in 1938, John O. Hardesty of Berryville, Virginia, tells of Crum's Church, the first Methodist Church in Clarke county, Virginia. Clarke, which was a part of Frederick county until 1836, adjoins Frederick county to the east, and Brucetown where the early Crums lived is close to the present county line. Hardesty says: "According to the records, the Old Crum's Meeting House dates back about the time of the Revolutionary War. In 1804 and until about 1851 it belonged to the Winchester Circuit .... The first deed to the ground here was made May 11, 1810. The ground was given by Christian Sr., and Christiana Crum and contained three-fourths of an acre." Among the trustees were Christian Crum Sr., and John Gibson, husband of Christian's daughter Catherine. On November 15, 1817 a deed was given by Henry and Modlena Crum for part of the land still occupied by the Church. (K). John Crum, brother of Christian Sr. and Henry, was one of the trustees.

Lawrence, in his History of the United Brethren Church, says: "In 1823 Christian Crum, one of the oldest and best ministers of the conference died. Of this venerable father in the United Brethren ministry, and Henry, his brother, Henry Smith of the M. E. Church, in a letter to the author, written in his ninety-first year, says: 'The Crums, Christian and Henry, I knew from my boyhood. They were our neighbors. They were twin brothers, and so much alike that in early life it was difficult to tell them apart. They were raised, I believe, in the German Reformed Church. They prayed and preached in the German. In the work of the ministry Christian took the lead, and always kept it. I shall never forget the good and fatherly advice he gave me when I was yet a wily boy, and the impression it made on my youthful mind. They both became itinerants. Christian traveled pretty extensively, and was an acceptable and useful preacher. I revere his memory. He was much beloved. Henry was a good man, and useful. His house was open to the English (Methodist) as well as German (United Brethren) preachers. There I heard the venerable Otterbein preach; and, among others, received the sacrament at his hands.' Christian Crum was a member of the first general conference."

Telling of a church service on November 20, 1803, the same author says: "Brother C. Crum spoke also, and it pleased God to accompany the word with power, and many cried aloud for mercy." (I).

The census return of 1810 indicates that Christian Sr. was then over 45 years old, and his wife under 45. My father's notes record that Bishop Newcomer preached at Christian's funeral September 30, 1820. I believe this date is correct because on the census list of 1820 Christian's wife, Christiana, is listed as the head of a family. No will for him is found in Frederick county records. It is not possible to say in what order all of the children were born.

Children:
* 1 - Rosina (Rose Mary) (Bidaman), 1779
2 - Christian Jr., 1780
* 3 - Susanna (Ambrose), Nov. 15, 1781
* 4 - Christiana (Stone), Sept. 19, 1782
* 5 - Mary Ann ("Polly" (Homan),Feb. 20, 1784
* 6 - Lewis, Feb. 10, 1787
* 7 - Henry, 1790
* 8 - John, 1797
9 - Sarah, (Ridgway)
10 - Rachael (Lowry)
*11 - Elizabeth (Ambrose)
12 - Catherine (Gibson)
13 - Anna Maria (Gardner)

III - HENRY, born about 1748, died 1819 in Frederick county, Va.
M. - Modlena (Mary Magdalena)

As mentioned above Henry, twin brother of Christian, was either a Methodist or a United Brethren. It is quite likely that his given name was John Henry. He was over 45 years old and his wife was under 45, when the census of 1810 was taken. At that time there were in the family a son between 10 and 16 years and one from 16 to 26; a daughter under 10, two between 10 and 16, and one from 16 to 26 years.

In writing of Winchester in 1925, Frederic Morton says: "The first actual conference of the United Brethren was held in Baltimore in 1789. Very speedily the new denomination appeared in the Winchester region. The twin brothers and preachers, Henry and Christian Crum, settled here before 1796." (L).

In "The Crum Family in America" the authors say concerning Christian and Henry Crum, (pg. 136): "These men are said to have been chaplains in Washington's Army and to have been with him at Yorktown. They apparently belonged to the Masonic Order as they are supposed to have sat in Lodge with Gen. Washington at Winchester, Va." Henry's children were:

Children:
*1 - John Henry Jr., 1776
2 - Daniel
3 - Peter (M- Ann Connor, Nov. 20, 1811)
4 - Christian
5 - Mary (Wickham)
*6 - Elizabeth(Lauck), 1785
7 - Barbara
8 - Catherine (Frost)

IV - MARY, daughter of Anthony Sr. M- a Schreck (Shruck).

Children:
1 - Jacob
2 - Barbara
3 - Catherine

V- CATHERINE (Weaver) She died prior to 1804

Children:
1 - Henry
2 - Mark
3 - George
4 - Elizabeth
5 - Philip
6 - Louis
7 - Anthony

VI- ANNA (Deal), may have died before 1804

Children:
1 - George
2 - Catherine
3 - Mary
4 - John
5 - Conrad
6 - Barbara
7 - Eva
8 - Elizabeth
9 - Ann
10 - Susanna

VII - ELIZABETH, M- Daniel Hackathorne (Heckendorn)

CHAPTER IV - THE GRANDCHILDREN OF ANTHONY CRUM SR.

We come now to the third generation, the grandchildren of Anthony Sr. At this time nothing further is known of Anthony's daughters' children than is given above; there is knowledge of some of the children of his sons Anthony Jr. and Henry, but most information is available as to the descendants of Christian Sr. at least ten of whose children migrated to Ohio in the early 1800's.

For ease in identifying the relationships in the genealogy, I have first placed a Roman numeral before the name of each of Anthony Sr.'s children. After the Roman numeral (before each name hereafter) I have used other numerals which denote the order of descent of later generations. For example, II- 2.1 indicates the first child of the second child of II, who is Christian Crum Sr. Abbreviations used are: B- born, M- married, D- died, co.- county, twp.- township, dau. - daughter.

THE SON OF ANTHONY JR. (Pg. 8)

I- 1. ANTHONY III B- before 1765, D- 1824
M- Betsy Orey, on Sept. 30, 1793.

Anthony III inherited land from his father on the latter's death in 1814. He is said to have lived near Long Marsh, Frederick Co., Va. He is listed on the census of 1810 as being over 45, while his wife was younger. They had one son over 16, a son and a daughter between 10 and 16, and two sons and two daughters under the age of 10. His wife may be the daughter of James Orey who in 1783 was living in New Kent co., Va. Perhaps Anthony III married a second time, for on a deed to his son Abraham in 1823 his wife's name is given as Sopha (M). Presently the names of only 3 of Anthony III's children are known.

Children:
* 1. John, Feb. 20, 1794
2. Henry
* 3. Abraham, Dec. 15, 1800
4. (Daughter) M- John Montgomery

THE CHILDREN OF CHRISTIAN SR. (Pg. 8)

II- 1 ROSINA (ROSE MARY), B- 1779, D- April 20, 1839
M- John Dedrick Bidaman (Biderman)
D- early in 1842

Rosina, daughter of Christian Crum Sr., and her husband John D. Bidaman, settled in Marshall, Highland co., O., prior to 1822. The Methodist Church met in their home in 1834. After his wife's death, Mr. Bidaman located in Fulton co., Ill., apparently with one of his children. From his will come the names of their children.

Children:
1. Rosanah
2. Christian (M- Sarah Glascock, Nov. 17, 1831.)
3. Mary (Gerneau)
* 4. Sarah (Head)
5. Frederick (M- Delitha Fenner, Feb. 28, 1833.)
6. John Crane
7. Nancy (White)
* 8. Lewis C.

II- 2 CHRISTIAN JR., B- 1780, D- July 27, 1854
M- (1) Hannah Barr, Oct. 27, 1805 in Virginia
(2) Sarah ("Sally") McIntyre, May 26, 1829 in Highland co., Ohio, B- 1795 in Ky. D- 1862

The census of 1810 in Frederick co., Virginia, lists Christian Jr. and his wife as being between 26 and 45 years old. They had 2 sons and 1 daughter under 10. In 1820 the parents were still under 45, and the family consisted of two daughters over 16; one son and four daughters from 10 to 16, and two sons under 10.

Between 1820 and 1829 Christian Crum Jr. left Virginia and settled at Hillsboro, Highland co., Ohio, where his name appears on the census of 1830. He was then between 40 and 50 years old and his wife from 30 to 40. In the family were two sons between 20 and 30, a son from 15 to 20, and a daughter from 10 to 15. He was a carpenter by trade.

The Hillsboro Gazette for July 27, 1854 contained the following obituary: "The venerable Christian Crum, for thirty-five years a resident of this place, departed this life this morning at 6½ o'clock, aged 74 years. Mr. Crum was born in Frederick county, Virginia. He has been a prominent, influential and useful member of the M. E. Church for fifty-one years, and in his death the church has lost one of her most pure, faithful and reliable pillars, and the community an honest, upright citizen. He leave many relations and friends to mourn his loss." August 4, 1854 his son, Rev. George C. Crum was appointed to administer his estate (N). I do not believe that the list of children below is complete; the last three were of the second marriage.

Children:
1. Christena
* 2. George Cramer, 1809
3. Edward (said to have been a physician)
4. Sally M., 1831.M- Frank G.King 10-13-1852.
5. John, 1833
6. Alexander McIntyre, 1839

II- 3 SUSANNA B- Nov. 15, 1781 D- Feb. 15, 1858
M- William Ambrose Sr.,B- Nov. 30, 1770, D- Aug. 23, 1850. Both are buried in Ambrose Cemetary, New Market, O.

Susanna, daughter of Christian Crum Sr., married Rev. William Ambrose Sr. in Virginia. They came from Berkeley co., Va. to Highland co., O. in 1814, settling in New Market twp. "Although he never owned slaves himself, he left Virginia principally on account of his strong opposition to slavery" (O). He was a local minister of the United Brethren Church, and conducted services in his home until he succeeded in erecting a church.

Children:
1. Elizabeth
2. Jacob (died in New Orleans)
3. Christine (M- Jacob Sonner of White Oak)
* 4. George, 1803
* 5. William Jr., Dec. 13, 1805
6. Susan (Meharry) lived in Indiana
7. Matthias (a U.B. minister in Ill. in 1880)
8. Lewis (a U.B. minister in Mo. in 1880)
* 9. Catherine (Ridings)

II- 4 CHRISTIANA (CHRISTENIA) B- Sept. 19, 1782 D- Oct. 30, 1860. M- Philip Stone in Virginia, Aug. 6, 1808 B- Feb. 15, 1786 D- Feb. 10, 1859. Both are buried in Hillsboro Cemetary.

I have not succeeded in finding the Stone family in Highland co., O. census records. His estate was administered by his son John in 1859. I have no proof of the others listed below, but believe they are properly placed. There is said to have been a granddaughter, Mrs. Conrad Ellerding, of Morris, Ill.

Children:
1. John W.
2. Alfred (M- Delila Rickman, Dec.13,1832)
3. Hampton P. (M- Adaline E. Girard)
* 4. Robert, 1810
* 5. Alcinda (Glascock)

II- 5 MARY (MARGARET) ANN ("POLLY") B- Feb. 20, 1784 D- Oct. 15, 1860. M- Michael Homan, D- May 11, 1853. Buried in Ambrose Cemetary, New Market, Highland co., O.

Mary, daughter of Christian Crum Sr., was born in Virginia and there married Michael Homan. They settled in Clay twp., Highland co., O. where he was a farmer. Her name is given on the available records in several different ways, but she was called "Polly". Presently the names of only two sons are known.

Children:
1. John, May 18, 1811. D- Mar. 12, 1864
* 2. Christian C., July 11, 1819

II- 6 LEWIS B- Feb. 10, 1787 in Frederick Co., Va. D- Apr. 7, 1861. M- Sarah Eagle who was born Nov. 5, 1787in Virginia. D- Feb. 20, 1862. They were buried in Gov. Byrd Memorial Cemetary, Sinking Spring , Ohio. (P)

Lewis, son of Christian Crum Sr., was the ancestor of many who are now living in Ohio and elsewhere throughout the United States. He married shortly after 1810. His wife was Sarah Eagle, also a native of Virginia.

In 1782 there were three Eagle families living in Virginia. In Shenandoah county, adjoining Frederick county on the south, were Timothy and William Eagle. An early note of mine says that Sarah was the daughter of George Eagle and "it is likely that George Eagle was a soldier of the Revolution and received land in Wayne co., Ohio, for service rendered in the war." At this writing I cannot find the source of this statement.

In May, 1809 William and Thomas Eagle migrated from Virginia and settled in Mohican twp. of what was then Wayne, but is now Ashland co., Ohio. (Q) William was the older, he and his wife Rebecca having been born about 1770. Thomas Eagle was born in 1782 and when he settled in Ohio had one child, a daughter, Amelia, born about 1807-8. (R) I believe that William and Thomas were brothers and that Sarah Eagle was their younger sister.

It is obvious how it happened that Lewis Crum came to settle in Ohio. His wife's relatives were established there, and, after the birth of his third child in Virginia in 1817, he joined them in Mohican twp., Wayne co. His name appears as head of a family there on the census returns of 1820 and 1830.

Sometime after 1834 Lewis Crum and his family moved to Sinking Spring, Highland co., O. Here he purchased a large farm northwest of the town, and with the help of his sons William and John Harrison built a grist mill on the bank of Brush Creek. He operated it until his death. My father visited here in 1887. Kelby Crum, a descendant, of Leesbrug, O., writes: "The old mill is completely down and trees have grown up through the ruins. The dam is out. The old Crum homestead still stands." One writer says that "in the early days Lewis Crum was one of the best known men of Highland County." (S) He was a man of integrity and his word was his bond.

Children: 1. William, 1811-12

II- 7 HENRY B- about 1790 M- Margaret,
B- about 1790 D- about 1865

Henry, son of Christian Crum Sr., resided in Winchester, Va., where his family is listed on the census of 1850. His occupation then was that of flour inspector. I am not certain whether the list of his children is complete. Some of them are mentioned in "Shenandoah Valley Pioneers" (S)

Children: 1. Catherine
2. John Henry, 1828 (probably killed in action)
3. Mary E., 1831 (M- Robert Hodgson son of Abner Hodgson).
* 4. Charles Lewis, 1832
5. Annie

II- 8 JOHN B- about 1797 - M- Rachael McCartney on Apr. 10, 1823. B- 1801, D- 1897.

John, son of Christian Crum Sr., and his wife were born in Frederick co., Va. He settled at Hillsboro, O., between 1833-35. He was a cabinetmaker by trade. The names and ages of the first eight of his children are found on the census returns of 1850. The additional names were given me by his granddaughter, Mrs. Pontius.

Children: *1. William, 1823-4
*2. Christian John, 1824
*3. Joseph Delap, Dec. 31, 1825
4. Christina R., 1830
5. Mary L., 1833 (M- Fountain E. Brown, Mar. 7, 1856)
*6. Catherine, 1835 (Grimes)
*7. Emily Albina, 1836 (Harsha)
8. John M., 1838
9. Sallie
10. Rebecca
11. Cornelia

II- 9 SARAH daughter of Christian Crum Sr. Married a Ridgway (Ridgeway) and settled in Highland co., O.

The only families of Ridgways that I have been able to find in Highland co. in the early days are those of Algenon (Alcermon) S. Ridgway and David H. Ridgway of Penn twp. I believe them to be sons of Sarah Crum Ridgway. Alcermon was born Sep. 14, 1806 in Virginia and married Elizabeth P. Pope in Ohio in 1844. In 1845 they deeded land for the Methodist Cemetary at Samantha. He died Oct. 11, 1873 and she died Dec. 14, 1903. Their son William E. Ridgway was born in 1848 and married Minerva E. Cary on Oct. 27, 1872. Minerva was born in 1849 and died Dec. 12, 1881. It may be that David H. Ridgway (1824-1915) of the same twp. is a brother of Alcermon. David married Jane A. Johnson in 1847 and had Martha, 1850; Richard, 1851; Emma, 1852 and Ausly (?) 1857.

II- 10 RACHAEL M- (1) Roberty Lowry at Winchester, Va., Nov. 4, 1813. (2) a Johns, (3) John Wells.

Rachael, daughter of Christian Crum Sr., was married three times as noted. Her family settled in Belmont co., O., near Barnesville. On the 1850 census I located a Sidwell Wells (B- 1821) in Union twp. who might be a son of Rachael and John Wells.

II- 11 ELIZABETH M- John Ambrose

This family remained in Virginia. On the census of 1850 I located two Ambrose families in Frederick co. whom I believe to be descendants of Elizabeth and John Ambrose.

Children: *1. William, 1810
*2. Christian C., 1815

II- 12 CATHERINE M- a Gibson

The family settled near Barnesville, Belmont co., O. I found the family of John R. Gibson on census returns for Union twp. in 1830 and 1850; but I do not believe this to be Catherine's family. John R. Gibson's sons were: James, 1832; William, 1835; Samuel, 1837; Henry, 1839.

Years ago there came into my possession a letter written in 1928 by L. R. Allen, then of Miami, Fla., a great grandson of Catherine Crum Gibson. I tried to contact him in 1939, but my letter was returned. He had done much research on the Crum family. In his letter he said in part: "We have a good picture of Catherine Crum and my great-grandfather Gibson, a Scotchman, who found himself in Winchester prior to the War of 1812. We have practically complete record of their descendants down to the present generation. Catherine's mother, Christina Schmidt Crum, was living with them at Barnesville in 1831."

II- 13 ANNA MARIA M- a Gardner

There is a difference of opinion as to the name of Christian Crum Sr.'s daughter who married a Gardner. It has been given as Anna Maria, May or Rebecca. The family settled in Highland co., O., but I have not succeeded in locating them. "Marriage Records of Highland co., O." McBride (1962) lists the following Gardners: A.C., Absolem, Daniel, Enoch, George, Mills and Seth who were married between 1813 and 1869.

THE CHILDREN OF HENRY CRUM SR. (Pg.10)

III- 1 JOHN HENRY JR. B- 1776 in Frederick co., Va.
D- 1846 in Frederick co., Md. M-
Barbara Hoffman

His name is given in various writings either as Henry or John Henry. It is quite likely that both his and his father's given name was John Henry. "While yet a young man, he came to Frederick county, Maryland, and purchased in 1793 a valuable farm in Jefferson district, which is now (1910) in the possession of his grandson, George W. Crum" (U)

Children:
1. Mary Ann, 1805
2. Elizabeth Ann, 1809
* 3. George Washington, Mar. 2, 1811
4. John Henry
* 5. Louisa (Tabler)
* 6. Catherine (Gitting)
* 7. Margaret (Botler)
* 8. Anna Rebecca (Hoffman)

III- 6 ELIZABETH B- 1785, M- a Lauck

Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Crum Sr., married a Lauck, or Lauick, as the same was sometimes spelled. Her husband had died prior to 1850, but the census of that year shows her living with her sons who were farmers in Frederick co., Va.

Children:
*1. John M., 1817
2. Archibald, 1820
3. Jacob, 1822
4. Arthur, 1826

CHAPTER V- THE FOURTH GENERATION

GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN OF ANTHONY CRUM SR.

(A) Children of Anthony Crum III (Pg.13)

I- 1.1 JOHN B- Feb. 20, 1794, D- Feb. 28, 1873
M- (1) Barbara Crum in Frederick co., Va. on Oct.29, 1812. She died 1831. (2) Margaret Evans. (3) Nancy Booth, B- 1811 in Pa., D- July 8, 1874.

John Crum, son of Anthony III, sold his land in Frederick co., Va., (according to deed records) in 1821 and located in Columbus, O. In 1822 he bought 160 acres of land in Seneca co., 3 miles north of Tiffin, to which he moved in 1824. In 1833 he was County Commissioner of Seneca co. "Mr. Crum was an excellent citizen and took an active part in public affairs. He was county commissioner some time, and while he was not a fast talker, he was a strong thinker. His judgment was clear and well matured." (V) He was a farmer and wagonmaker by trade. (W) For information concerning John's descendants, I am largely indebted to Dr. Ferris B. Crum of Oak Park, Ill.

Children: 1. Rebecca (Crawford)

(B) Children: of Rosina Crum Bidaman, II-1. (Pg.14)

II- 1.3 SARAH BIDAMAN M- a Head

Her married name was Head. She had a son, Louis Head, who was the father of Mrs. B. P. McKinley. Louis Head and his daughter in 1927 were living in Bridgeport, Conn. Mr. L. R. Allen stated:"They had a small testament, printed in 1754, and on the inside flyleaf in his own handwriting appears 'property of Christian Crum of Winchester, Va., Feb. 10, 1809.'"

Child: 1. Louis Head

II- 1.8 LEWIS C. BIDAMAN M- (2) Emma Hale Smith,

Major Lewis C. Bidaman was living at Novoo, Hancock co., Ill. in 1844. According to his father's will he had two daughters, in 1841, Mary Elizabeth and Zerelda. (X) Apparently his first wife died. Joseph Smith (1805-44), founder of the Morman faith, was slain at Navoo in 1844. Smith was married to Emma, daughter of Isaac Hale of Harmony, Pa., in 1827. Following Smith's death his widow Emma married Major Bidaman and "for many years thereafter she and the Major operated the Navoo House," a hotel in the town (Y).

Children: 1. Mary Elizabeth Bidaman
2. Zerelda

(C) Child of Christian Crum Jr., II-2.(Pg.14)

II- 2.3 GEORGE CRAMER CRUM, B- 1809 at Winchester, Va. D- Mar. 4, 1882, M- Sarah January on July 2, 1833.

As a young man George was active in the service of the Methodist Church at Hillsboro, O. He was ordained in the Methodist ministry in 1833 and served many pastorates in Ohio, among them Wesley Chapel, Columbus, 1847-8; High Street M.E. Church, Springfield, 1861-2; Trinity M.E. Church, Xenia, 1864 and 1875; Rapier M.E. Church, Dayton, O., the church at Hillsboro, and was Presiding Elder at Cincinnati. He had a D.D. degree. In 1854 he published "Mount of Blessing," a book of lectures on the beatitudes, dedicated to "my venerable and beloved father." The children's names were given me by Mrs. Pontius.

Children: *1. Lucy Webb (Thompson)

CHAPTER SEVEN

THE SIXTH AND LATER GENERATIONS

There are many hundreds of Anthony Crum Sr.'s descendants living throughout the United States. Unfortunately it has not been possible to locate most of those who are living today. Records of earlier generations are more readily available than of current descendants. Tracing must be done chiefly by painstaking correspondence. The truth is that many folks just aren't interested in genealogy and therefore neglect to answer letters of inquiry on the subject.

There follows a summary of all information on hand at this writing concerning the great-great-great grandchildren of Anthony Crum Sr. and later generations. I shall welcome correspondence as to any names which have been omitted or corrections that should be made for the sake of accuracy.
